Types of Bursaries

There are two main types of bursaries available:

Vulnerable Student Bursary: This bursary offers up to £1,200 per year for students who are:

- o In or have recently left local authority care
- o Receiving Income Support or Universal Credit in their own name
- Receiving Disability Living Allowance (DLA) or Personal Independence Payment (PIP) in their own name, along with Employment and Support Allowance (ESA) or Universal Credit

Discretionary Bursary: This bursary is awarded by educational institutions based on individual assessments of financial need. It is intended for students who require financial assistance to continue their education but do not qualify for the Vulnerable Student Bursary. The amount awarded varies depending on individual circumstances and is allocated using the banding system below.

	Househo	ld Income	Max Allocation ⁱ¹
Band A	£0	£15,000	£1,200
Band B	£15,001	£18,000	£900
Band C	£18,001	£21,000	£600
Band D	£21,001	£24,000	£300
Band E	£24,001	£27,000	£150

Purpose and Usage

The bursary funds are intended to assist with education-related costs, such as:

- Transport to and from school or college
- Books and other essential equipment
- Specialist clothing required for courses (e.g., protective gear)
- Costs associated with attending university interviews or work placements

It's important to note that the bursary is not meant to cover general living expenses or extracurricular activities that are not essential to the student's study programme.

Eligibility and Application

To be eligible for the 16 to 19 Bursary Fund, students must:

- o Be aged 16 to 19 on 31 August of the academic year in question
- o Be enrolled in a publicly funded school, college, or training provider in England
- Meet the specific criteria set out for either the Vulnerable Student Bursary or the Discretionary Bursary

¹ Actual Allocations are always at or below the maximum and will depend on numbers of applicants for the available funds and will be allocated equably within the funding formula after a 5% cost of managing is top sliced from the funds

Applications are made through this form ONLY. Students must complete the application form themselves and will be required to provide evidence of their and their household's financial situation.

There are 7 sections of this form that MUST be completed by Monday 6th October. It is at this point applications will be review and bursary funds allotted for draw down.
