

Recommended Reading List

Reading for pleasure has an untold range of enormous benefits – sometime it is knowing where to start.

A great place to go is the School's Reading List secondary website. The reading suggestions here are taken from the list and the 9 titles for each year group are based on the feedback, reading habits and library borrowing habits of our students here at Holcombe.

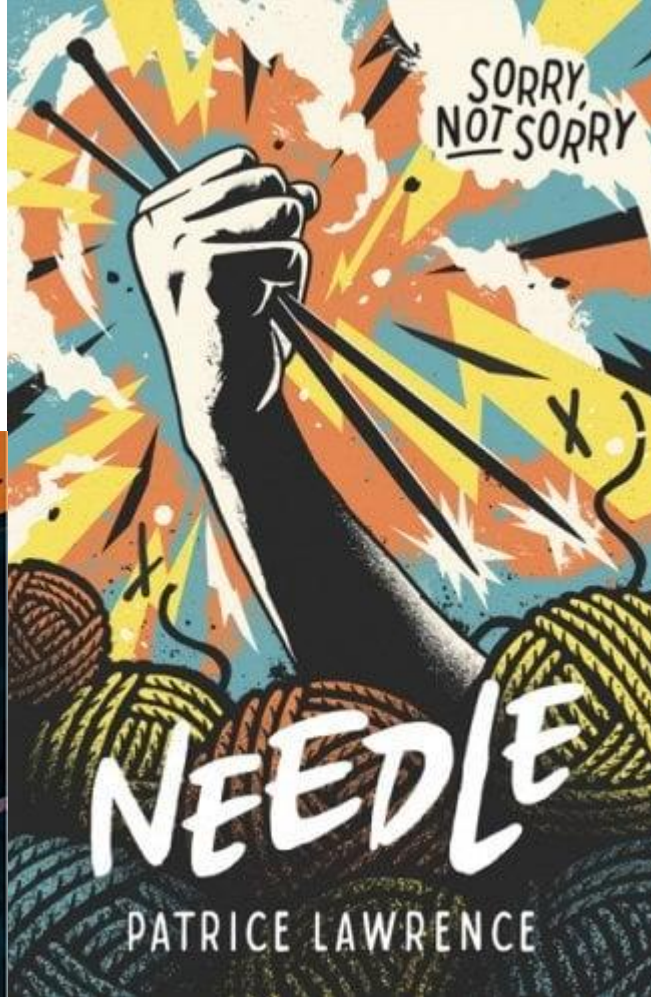

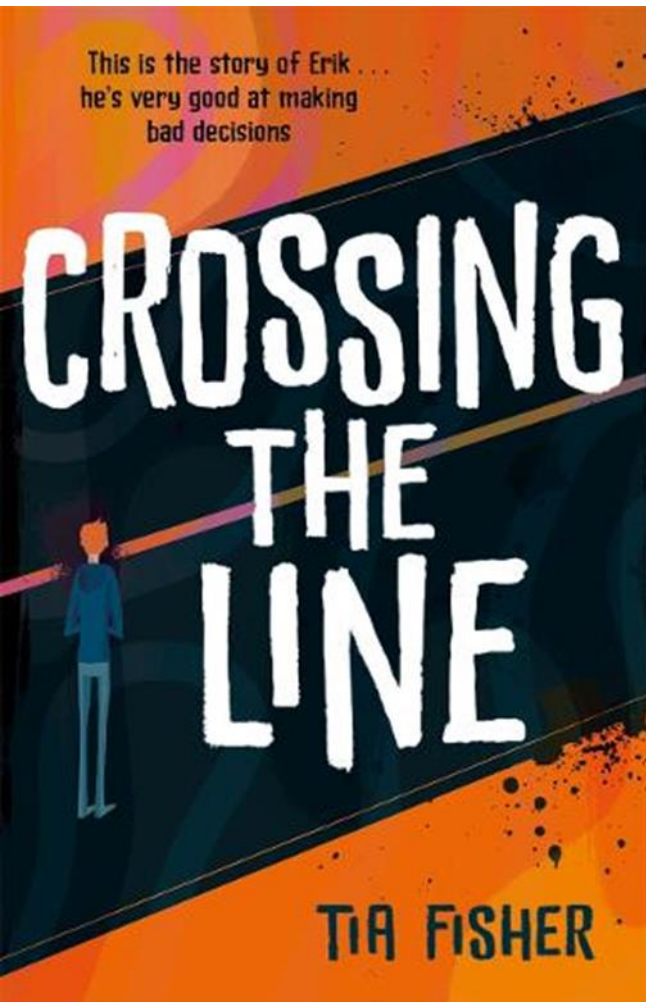

It might help to know that other students in the Holcombe community have enjoyed them.

We would recommend that you and your child also consider some of the titles above and below their year group – good literature is good literature and there are no exact age categories.

Enjoy your reading.
